Teen Safe Driving Campaign

What is the contest for?

Safety Center Incorporated in partnership with the Allstate Foundation has created a Teen Safe Driving Campaign that includes a Alive At 25, Alive At 25 Parent Program and the FOCUSimulator. The purpose of this contest is to engage teens in writing essays about how driver distractions can lead to teen car crashes.

Who can apply?

Any Stanislaus County student grades 10-12.

What kinds of essays will be considered?

Original and creative essays that can help teens understand the risks of being a new driver and how the teen safe driving message can be effectively communicated to their classmates through a student led campaign.

What are the contest prizes?

Each prize includes a free 4-hour program on the FOCUSimulator plus:

1st Prize $300

2nd Prize $150

3rd Prize $50

3 Runner-ups will also receive FOCUSimulator programs

How do I enter?
