Adequate Yearly Progress

No Child Left Behind (NCLB) requires that all schools and districts meet Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) requirements. To meet these standards, California public schools and districts must meet or exceed criteria in four target areas: (1) Participation rate on statewide assessments, (2) Percent of students scoring proficient on statewide assessments, (3) API scores, and (4) Graduation rate for high schools. The table displays whether or not the school made AYP overall and met each of the AYP criteria for 2007-08. For a detailed report on Adequate Yearly Progress, please visit www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ay/.

Academic Performance Index

The Academic Performance Index (API) is an annual measure of the academic performance and progress of schools in California. The API is a score on a scale of 200 to 1,000, with 800 set as the statewide target. The table displays the actual API changes in points for the past three years, and the most recent API score. For more detailed information, please visit www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ap.

The table displays data regarding NCLB compliant teachers from the 2007-08 school year. For more information on teacher qualifications related to NCLB, please visit www.cde.ca.gov/nclb/sr/tq.
