

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release – November 24, 2014

Contact: Melanee Wyatt, YES Company Founding Artistic Director, 238-6850
Lisa G. Stegall-Dokoozlian, YES Company Business Manager, 238-6855
Cynthia Fenech, Communications Coordinator, 238-1704
Judy Leitz, Communications Coordinator, 238-1709

YES Company Presents “Gift of Song”

YES (Youth Entertainment Stage) Company is gearing up for their fifth annual production of “Gift of Song,” a holiday music review and sing-a-long, slated to open at the Johansen High School Theatre in December. A special project of the Stanislaus County Office of Education and the Education Foundation of Stanislaus County, tickets ($10-$12) are on sale beginning November 1, 2014 at www.showtix4u.com. Performances will be:

- December 6, 2014 at 4:00 P.M.
- December 7, 2014 at 3 P.M.

YES Company's Gift of Song celebrates songs and seasons of the holidays and is dedicated to the memory of Bette Belle Smith. A collection of seasonal hits and beloved Broadway classics will come to life in youthful tones concluding in a Christmas sing-a-long. Join YES Company as they kick-start the holiday season with this one-of-a-kind charitable Gift of Song.

In its 24th season, YES Company has been nationally recognized for its professionally staffed programs and top-quality productions that are provided to participants for little to no charge. For additional information about the YES Company programs and productions visit www.yescompany.org.