Free Stop Tobacco & Nicotine Dependence Course at SCOE

The Stanislaus County Office of Education (SCOE) is providing a series of classes designed to help people stop smoking tobacco and/or nicotine product use. This eight-session course is open to anyone who wishes to attend and is currently being offered FREE of charge to the first 15 participants.

The course begins with an orientation meeting on Tuesday, May 5 at SCOE (1100 H Street, Modesto). Classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. over a four week time frame.

The programs are conducted by the Stanislaus Advocacy Action Team (StAAT), a project of SCOE's Prevention Programs Department. For more information or to register, please call Erikka Perry at (209) 238-1367. For more information on the StAAT project visit www.stancoe.org/go/StAAT.
