Meet Stanislaus County Superintendent of Schools and the County Board of Education at the Stanislaus County Fair

The public is invited to stop by Stanislaus County Office of Education's (SCOE) booth at the fair on Wednesday, July 13 from 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. to meet members of the Stanislaus County Board of Education and County Superintendent of Schools Tom Changnon. The Superintendent and these five elected board members (Mary Ann Sanders, Alice Pollard, Kim Rose, Kim Spina and Bob Vizzolini) are responsible for making major policy decisions in the area of budgeting, curriculum, and advance planning for the County Office of Education. The Superintendent and several Board members will be available to answer questions and provide information about SCOE. This year, the fair runs Friday, July 8 through Sunday, July 17.
