Teacher's Narrative

I understand that this process is the first step in the California Teacher of the Year Program. I further certify that I am a fully credentialed teacher, through the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC), and the teacher of record for designated students and not fully released from the classroom. If I am selected as a California Teacher of the Year, I may need to be released from classroom duties for 30 or more instructional days. If selected as National Teacher of the Year, I will need to be released for a full instructional year. The school, district, or other administrative authority employing the applicant is responsible to ensure that my salary and benefits are not diminished during the release time and to provide for substitute personnel as necessary. The teacher selected to represent Stanislaus County in the State program will be required to complete the California Teacher of the Year application and participate in the State level competition. Additionally, the completion of the application and narrative pages serves as acknowledgement of the above and consent to be videotaped and photographed. The district will provide release time for me to attend the 2018 luncheon, participate on the screening team for the 2019 Teacher of the Year and attend the 2019 luncheon.

You will have 1,000 words to answer the following questions, matching the number of the question with your response. (Do not rewrite the questions themselves – just provide the numbers.)
